

9.00-9.30	Registration
9.25-9.30	Opening
9.30-10.15	Plenary 1 Janet Connor: "How to listen, and to whom? Enacting different ways of being a social entrepreneur"
	Room 1	Room 2
Parallel sessions	Children's perspectives (Chair: Hannah De Mulder)	Second language sociolinguistics & pluri-/multi-lingualism (Chair: Marina Terkourafi)
10.15-10.45	Laura Rosseel & Eline Zenner Children's evaluation of socially meaningful language variation: a two-dimensional perspective	Annebeth Simonsz & Dick Smakman Second Language Sociolinguistics. Culture representations in Dutch and Georgian L2 teaching classrooms
10.45-11.15	Melissa Schuring, Steven Verheyen, Laura Rosseel & Eline Zenner Je hoort het, je ziet het, je weet het: hoe kinderen over het verschil tussen Engelse leenwoorden en het Nederlands reflecteren	Elise Alberts Is God multilingual? Language Ideologies and Attitudes in a Multilingual Church Network in the Netherlands
11.15-11.45	Hadis Tamleh Exploring Family Language Policy Through Children's Eyes: Language Portraits of Iranian Immigrant Children in the Netherlands	Frauke Vervaeke & Anne-Sophie Ghyselen Hoe pluricentrisch is het Nederlands echt? Inzichten uit een online perceptie-onderzoek in Aruba, België, Nederland en Suriname
11.45-12.15	Anne-France Pinget & Thomas St. Pierre The development of language attitudes towards Dutch accents in primary school children	Veronique De Tier, Katrien Depuydt & Mathieu Fannee Een infrastructuur voor dialectliefhebbers: het Bildtse dialect als pilot
12.15-13.00	Lunch & Poster session
13.00-13.45	Plenary 2 Julie Van Ongeval & Rik Vosters: "Unraveling myths in Dutch language history. A case study on language variation and change in Early Modern Antwerp (1564-1653)"
13.45-14.00	Coffee/tea break

Parallel sessions	(Non-)gendered language (Chair: Eduardo Alves Vieira)	Styles, registers and identity (Chair: Mo Gordon)
14.00-14.30	Morana Lukac Can I Convince You to Use Non-Binary Pronouns? Yes, if You're Familiar with Them.	Eva van Kampen & Remco Knooihuizen Reading, Writing, Speaking: Variation in Bokmål in central eastern Norway
14.30-15.00	Hanne Verhaegen A thematic analysis of attitudes towards gender-neutral pronouns in Dutch	Emma Lambrecht From Spoken Word to Written Text: Tracing Speech Patterns in 19th-Century West Flemish Pauper Letters and Witness Depositions
15.00-15.30	Alexander Martin & Hans Wilke Zijn er ook vrouwen binnen een groep "studenten"? Bias bij interpretatie van algemene mannelijke rolnaamwoorden	Sophia Agathocleous Style shift between standard and non-standard variants: indexing or indexed by identity?
15.30-16.00	Coffee/tea break
Parallel sessions	Sociophonetics (Chair: Dick Smakman)	Community formation (Chair: Gijsbert Rutten)
16.00-16.30	Guus Houben & Katharina Pabst Word-final nasal deletion in African American English	Arie Elsenaar Smoezen: gebruik en acceptatie
16.30-17.00	Seonok Lee, Suzanne V. Dekker & Dylan J.C. Rose Accent Hierarchies and Raciolinguistic Bias: Exploring Student Attitudes Towards Non-Standard English Accents in a Dutch University	Meike de Boer, Willemijn Heeren, Arjan Blokland Online communities van zelfverklaarde "child lovers" op het darknet
17.00-17.30	Cesko Voeten Variation and change in Frisian vowel breaking	Guste Staseviciute & Leonie Cornips Experiencing Closeness: Human-Animal Relationships Through Embodied Interaction
17.30-18.15	Plenary 3 Hielke Vriesendorp : "In defence of generalising (cautiously): LGBTQ+ language through a quantitative lens"
18.15-18.30	Closing & Announcement poster award & next year's conference	