

Major: Governance, Economics & Development, 2024-2025
400-level	Capstone thesis
300-level	Institutions in Time (compulsory)	Public Policy Analysis	The Dissident Mind	Human Security	Advanced Political Economy	Behavioral Economics Real Donut Economics	Environmental Economics Applied Natural Resource Management	Law, Governance & Development Managing Natural Resources in Law and Practice
Methodology courses 200-level / 300-level	Foundations of Research Design (compulsory) Quantitative Research Methods (compulsory) Calculus Geographic Information Systems Life Cycle Assessment Qualitative Research Methods Advanced Geographic Information Systems Advanced Quantitative Research Methods
200-level	Decision-making Processes (compulsory)	Politics of the Policy Process	Foundational Debates in Governance, Economics & Development Politics Through Literature	Politics & Development	Comparative Party Systems Political Economy	Microeconomics Macroeconomics International Economics Advanced Economic Thinking and Analysis	Life Cycle Assessment Environmental Governance	Political & Economic Foundations of Law
100-level	Institutions of Governance & Development (compulsory)				Introduction to Comparative Politics (compulsory)	Principles of Economics OR Entrepreneurs and Markets (compulsory)	Sharing Scarcity	Comparative Justice Systems
Tracks	Institutional Analysis	Policy Science	Philosophy, Politics & Economics	International Development	Comparative Politics and Political Economy	Economics	With EES	With IJ
	Major tracks						Co-convened tracks	