

Master of Laws Advanced Studies in International Children's Rights Newsletter January 2017

Season's Greetings

The Advanced Studies in International Children's Rights Programme wishes our wonderful and growing network a peaceful and exciting new year. Warmest regards and best wishes for you, your family and loved ones, and may 2017 bring continued success and happiness. We truly appreciate your support and engagement in our programme at Leiden Law School and hope to continue this cooperation in the future.

New Applications 2017-2018

Applications for the upcoming academic year 2017-2018, commencing in September 2017, are welcome. The programme is one full academic year starting each September, and includes courses, seminars and excursions to key institutions and children's rights organisations in the Netherlands, Geneva and elsewhere.

The deadline for non-European applicants is 1 April 2017 and for European applicants 15 June 2017. Please visit: <http://en.mastersinleiden.nl/programmes/international-childrens-rights/en/how-to-apply>. For information on scholarship possibilities visit this link.
