

INVITATION

Gender and International Criminal Law

16 - 17 January 2024

Leiden University - Schouwburgstraat 2 - The Hague

Please join us for the 2-day international conference Gender and International Criminal Law on 16 and 17 January 2024 at Leiden University, Schouwburgstraat 2, The Hague, The Netherlands.

The conference will convene 100+ key actors in the Gender Justice field to share knowledge, inspire practical solutions, and renew energy to inform the future of a more equitable International Criminal Law field.

Your participation is crucial to the success of this conference, and we look forward to your attendance, contribution, and collaboration in shaping the discourse on Gender Justice and International Criminal Law.

We kindly invite you to register for the conference through the following link before the 10th of January 2024: https://fd24.formdesk.com/universiteitleiden/Gender_ICL. Should you not be able to join us in person, please note that the conference will be streamed online.

Please refer to the program of the conference below. The full program with the list of speakers and interactive sessions will be shared with registered participants.

The impetus for the conference is the publication of the comprehensive book Gender and International Criminal Law (Oxford University Press 2022), edited by Indira Rosenthal, Valerie Oosterveld, and Susana SáCouto, and a new initiative to establish a Gender Justice Practitioner Hub (GJP Hub) to support and connect practitioners involved in securing gender justice for core international crimes.

Do not hesitate to contact us if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

The Gender and International Criminal Law Conference Organizers
